Dark clouds tie down the sails,
Brace yourself for the waves!
It's all lost fight for yourselves,
There's no left to save!

And I can't find the words to tell you that I failed,
We could have beat the distance but the time prevailed.
And our breaths the only thing to hold on to...

The memories of shore,
And the red sky that warned you,
Of the lightning igniting the sky!
This ship is going down.
Nowhere to run,
And the worst is yet to come...

And I'm not through yet but I'm running out of plans,
Not for nothing but you left this all in my hands.
And where there are lies there are shadows of truth,
And if I told you that we'd be alright.
I know you'd see the,
Dark clouds tie down the sails!
Brace yourself for the waves!
It's all lost...

The memories of shore,
And the red sky that warned you,
Of the lightning igniting the sky!
This ship is going down,
Nowhere to run,
And the worst is yet to come...

Night can come at anytime but morning only once,
When the stars are too far to follow you'll know to remember tomorrow's,
Red sky morning!
RED SKY WARNING!

Make up your minds,
Trust me and dive into the cold!

I'll wait for rescue,
On your own,
While I try desperately to float...

And as the water rises you can doubt your choices,
There are voices in your head,
Drowning the sense that drives you senseless...
The end is coming...

The memories of shore,
And the red sky that warned you,
Of the lightning igniting the sky!
This ship is going down.
Nowhere to run,
And the worst is yet to come...

The memories of shore
And the red sky that warned you,
Of the lightning igniting the sky!
This ship is going down.
Nowhere to run,
And the worst is yet to come...
