Don't attempt to take the pain away
Let it go You're dead to me now I've learned enough to know what you do makes who you are

So here's a lesson in deception
Don't act like you don't know
It's time to build your own disaster
Out of something beautiful

She said, she said
I'm not a liar
Yeah, if only that were true
You're like an angel when you sleep
The Devil's breaking through

I'd burn alive if that meant you would too So stop Fing with me Fing let me be

Cuz I can tell that you've been sleeping don't act like you're impressed you've got despicable bad habits of taking off your dress

she said she said
i'm not a liar

so tell me baby I'm waiting, but you never would confess Would it make it easier with rope around your neck?
so take a breath

she said she said
she's not a liar cuz i've got all the time it takes well she's wrong cuz i can see inside her

I wish you could see the same

you're like an angel when you sleep
What's up girl, do it for me Come on take the pain it makes us whole, it makes us whole come on You like that?

she says i'm not a liar she's a liar
now we know it's true

you're like an angel when you sleep
So go to sleep for good so tell me am i too rough?

Close your eyes it's not gonna hurt...
much so for every night that you led me on here's another bruise to remind you of the pain I felt All the pain i felt from you so, what's it gonna be?
you've got three seconds to speak 3...
1...
You liar!
You betrayed me
I never
So you've got three seconds to speak
