Icecold Sucka for love song lyrics

Verse1

As a child didn't know bout love my teenage years was all about the sex I showed the girls no love If they were buff then we'd check em' fat and butters we'd run em'
And in the summertime we'd move to the girls at mission to London.

Pretty girl named Rihanna, made her a self harmer she said one day her girl gone give drama now im getting Karma.

Never can get through to your phone I call and hearing voices in the background you saying your home alone.

Your friend Cassy said you cheated on me, well I guess im just to blind to see girl you did me wrong I lock It off the situation gets long but then I miss my baby gotta call and get it back on (im a sucka for love)

My boys saying your no good for me, im too hood to be caught in your net and can't break free but I don't know what to do im in a catch 22 coz I can't imagine life without you-

Chorus

Im a sucka for love hit you up with diamond rings all the platinum things yeah
Im a sucka for love flying you around the world
anywhere you wanna go Im a sucka for love treat you like a queen but you still mistreating me
Im a sucka for love why do I put up with this I admit it must be that im a sucka for love yeah

Verse 2

I guess so though I'd hate to admit it girl intoxicated my mind from the first time that I hit it

Im so addicted to her love gotta make mine is the mission could never envision myself being caught up in this position

Coz I seen one too many guys with g's n X5's fall in the trap of spending stacks on girls they thought that was wives

Then realise she's been cheating you was with her for years she's having affairs

Your momma said it would all end in tears.

And it kind of compares with the situation it I was caught up in relationship with this girl was more than casual loving

Head over heels crazy in love my mind wasn't right Blinded by hype and looking back in hindsight (im a sucka for love)

I guess that's why I spent my time and my dough and ignored my friends when they said 'Yo snipes she's a Ho'

Even so I stayed with her through all that was said
Now there's a voice in the back of my head saying

Chorus

Im a sucka for love hit you up with diamond rings all
the platinum things yeah

Im a sucka for love flying you around the world
anywhere you wanna go

Im a sucka for love treat you like a queen but you still
mistreating me

Im a sucka for love why do I put up with this I admit it
must be that im a sucka for love yeah

Bridge

Listen

You should know that you're my girl You're my angel nothing can replace ya
If I ruled the world I'd give you it all Coz you're my only girl the only one I love

Verse3

I bought you diamond rings Gucci, Louis and Prada Back when my friend was on ya
Now you acting like you wanna

Forget P and move on girl

That's aight then move on girl I'll find me a new girl Coz I don't need you in my world

Take time out if you can And try to understand Coz I did almost anything girl just to be your man

You know this much is true Baby girl I did love you But while im being honest you should know I played you to

Chorus

Im a sucka for love hit you up with diamond rings all
the platinum things yeah
Im a sucka for love flying you around the world
anywhere you wanna go
Im a sucka for love treat you like a queen but you still
mistreating me
Im a sucka for love why do I put up with this I admit it
must be that im a sucka for love yeah

Im a sucka for love hit you up with diamond rings all
the platinum things yeah
Im a sucka for love flying you around the world
anywhere you wanna go
Im a sucka for love treat you like a queen but you still
mistreating me
Im a sucka for love why do I put up with this I admit it
must be that im a sucka for love yeah

Im a sucka I must be a sucka for your love
Im a sucka im a sucka for your love
Im a sucka I must be a sucka for your love
Im a sucka im a sucka for your love
Im a sucka I must be a sucka for your love
Im a sucka im a sucka for your love
