this isn't what i planned
I lived and died now
With all the love i feel
I could never leave her
No matter what the cost
My souls the price to see her
Oh how I love you
The pain won't go away
Oh when I need you
Your always so far away
I cry for you leaving myself to blame
I died for you
I gave up everything
The pain was just to much
When I finally saw her
She's Happy and in love
In love with my best friend
What makes it hurt so bad
Is that i love them both
And they will never know
For love is sold my soul
