Oh whoa whoa...Oh yeah...

So you're talking about the river
And you sit here and watch the rain come down
Rain must never last forever
Still you wonder, "Hey, where are you now?"

Every way you run it finds you
No matter how you try it won't let go
Every step you take reminds you
Though you never let it show

Nobody lets you know
Nobody told you love is just a word
Nobody lets you know
Nobody told you love is just a word

Is just a word (just a word)

So you're talking about the river
And you sit here and watch the rain come down
Rain must never last forever
Still you wonder, "Hey, where are you now?"

Every way you run it finds you
No matter how you try it won't let go
Every step you take reminds you
Though you never let it show

Love (love, love, love)
Love (love, love, love)

Nobody lets you know
Nobody told you love is just a word
Nobody lets you know
Nobody told you love is just a word
Nobody lets you know
Nobody told you love is just a word
Nobody lets you know
Nobody told you love is just a word
Nobody lets you know

Nobody told you love is just a word
Nobody told you love
Nobody told you love is just a word
