Ooh, ooh...ooh, ooh...uh, uh, uh...Mmm, mmm, mmm...

Now as the day is closing, hold every moment
It may slip through your hands
Evening falls so slowly, so something warm as only summer nights can

Every sound that you're hearing, every smile that you catch
Is somehow lost in the crowd
And I know it's not easy, oh girl you know me
There's no need to go now

All those tears you've wasted (All those tears you have wasted)
When all the while (After all the while) Everything was alright (Everything is) So don't you be so sad now (So don't you be so sad now)
You know that we can make it work out (We can make it work out)

When the moon & sun finds you (When the moon and sun finds you) Well U can turn to brand new day (You can turn to a brand new day)
All the love that I give you (All the love that I give you) Take all I have, no one can steal it away (No one can steal away)

Tonite, tonite, stay close tonight...Hold on, hold on, stay close tonight

You and I belong here, two of a kind together day after day
Outside the night is warm, just close you eyes now
So come on, don't you cry

Oh tonight somehow special
I don't know how to tell you the way that I feel
We could stay here forever, never come down Won't you say that you will

Tonite, tonite (chance, chance) stay close tonight (stay close tonight)

Hold on, hold on, stay close tonight (stay close tonight)

Tonite, tonite (chance, chance) stay close tonight (stay close tonight)

Hold on, hold on, stay close tonight (stay close tonight)
