seashore the crashing of waves against the sand is pivotal to the nature to the situation to the situation demonstrating which is lacking in concept in substance when the waves dont crash against the sand they bury the ones we love city streets towns above the wrath of rising water the threat of no tomorrow like storm clouds like a dream bury us all in an aquamarine grave under the sands of time and we will be erased from the time we knew forever i wish i'd never bury the ones we love city streets towns above the wrath of rising water the threat of no tomorrow until our hero comes until we can save ourselves until the lungs of the sea retract . until our own lungs collapse and she won't and she won't and she won't know what hit her until she's already gone
