Look in these eyes,
Show how im spending time,
The blind designs,
Follow the red over white.

I hear,
I taste this,
Whispering misery,
I hear,
I waste,
I know your not safe with me.

I can't face you,
I'll erase you,
Cant escape you,
I won't miss you.

I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.
I'll drink,
I drink myself to sleep.

I can't recall,
Drifting or falldown,
Maybe im selfish and blind,
I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.

Look and dispise,
Reflections telling lies,
See you behind,
Your stare is so sickening.

I hear,
I taste this,
Whispering misery,
I feel it take me,
And i shout at you suddenly.

I can't face you,
I'll erase you,

Cant escape you,
I won't miss you.

I can't face you,
I'll erase you,
Cant escape you,
I won't miss you.

I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.
I'll drink,
I drink myself to sleep.

I can't recall,
Drifting or falldown,
Maybe im selfish and blind,
I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.

Am i losing it,
Did i ever have it to begin with,
Am i losing it,
Did i ever have it to begin with,
Am i losing it.

I think im losing control,
Get out of the way,
I know im losing control.

I'll drink myself to sleep,
I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.
I'll drink,
I drink myself to sleep.

I can't recall,
Drifting or falldown,
Maybe im selfish and blind,
I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.

I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.

I'll drink myself to sleep,
Five thousand times.
