It's time to leave
It's time to go
I'll see you somewhere when it's time

Cause I gave you all
That I have to give
Now I'm going home
To what's mine

And I'm leaving these last days behind

Goodbye new friend, I'm leaving
It's time for me to go
Maybe we might find a time for you and me together
But first some tender leaves have to fall

I woke up
When I met you
Now I miss
What love couldn't find

Maybe I've held back
Or forgot what I missed
Then you spoke in a voice that was mine

While the wind blew through birches and pine

Goodbye new friend, I'm leaving
It's time for me to go
Maybe we might find a time for you and me together
But first some tender leaves have to fall
But first tender leaves must fall
