There's a new breeze in the air tonight
There's a new warmth in my cold, lonely heart
I can't wait to get some days in the sun
Now that I'm free to be with you

Come on over honey and bring your guitar
Let's have a drink and write a
Bunch of new songs
We'll make a toast, to those who live for today
They are free just like you and me

These, these are the days
These are the times we'll have in mind
So let's just enjoy our lives while we can
And we'll understand why
It's so beautiful watching the days just roll by
It's so beautiful watching the days just roll by

Baparara baparara baparara

Let's not sit around and stare at the clock
But learn to pass time, by having a laugh
Cause smiling is lovely and smiling's for free
Come and smile a while with me

These, these are the days
These are the times we'll have in mind
So let's just enjoy our lives while we can
And we'll understand why
It's so beautiful watching the days just roll by
It's so beautiful watching the days just roll by
It's so beautiful watching the days just roll by
It's so beautiful watching the days just roll by
