"The Tail Of A Jet Black Swan"

So you've waited long for this
A deep awakening comes in to sweep your sorry eyes Where there once was absent thoughts, now pictures intervene
And from those memories you've got, you've found a way to finally see that

Love is just the tail of a jet black swan

Captured images of light
They remind us not to blink or shy away our souls Can't imagine all the pain you've been living with I'm not sorry in the least for the things I never did because

Love is just the tail of a jet black swan
