"Few Words"

Visit "Few Words" on MotoLyrics.com

what i want is just to talk to you, few words could make a chance.

what i need is just to look at you in your eyes, there's maybe a chance

what i want is a exchange here i am, still with these walls around me.

here i am, but you don't ever see me.

I'm all alone with the silence.

maybe i will find a friend, someone who can feel the same or maybe i'll receive from you-just what i want a few words that's what i want few words and day after day, i walk these streets looking for someone who can feel what i feel
