deep in your sleep, hits and screams take you out of your dreams you stand up and walk to the window, open the panes and take a look outside watch this guy, his mouth full of blood hear the scream of a girl, both pursued by 4 assholes it's just right now, just right now, it's just what's happening out there.
Scream, shout no, not agin help, they need help. what a situation man, there's no else around now. so what's on your mind will you try to act... seems so scary.
it's a dark cold night one amongst the others hear those sounds and don't start thinking
it's a dark cold night one amongst the others hear those sounds as the dogs start barking
