factories are roaring
production is growing
fake desire
advertise
you're not just what you buy fed with lies
we think we're alright
fight despair when you're so sad go shopping and feed the bag so what's the point
we've got so much
but never time to sit and watch
so look at what you've got if you're not blind
and think a little bit
if you still got a mind
so look at what you've got
you've got nothing
and you call this the modern age?
so what's the point
who's got a better life?
who's got a better lie?
hep! hep!
you got nothing
hep! hep!
