You take my life away (take my life away),
You take my life away (you take my life away),
You take my life away (take my life away),
Life away, Life away (life away life away).

To break my life away (to break my life away),
To break my life away (break my life away),
To break my life away (break my life away),
Life away, Life away (life away, life away).

And then you look into my eyes,
Untill I saw the nights surprise,
And you saw the nights surprise.

And you know that the night,
Can bring you back to life,
And you know that the night,
Can bring you back to life.

And there's a chance that it might,
If it won't take away your life,
Then you know that the night can bring back,
It brings you back to life.

(You break my life away) You break my life away,

(To break my life away) To break my life away,
(You break my life away) Life away,
(Life away, Life away) Life away, Life away,

(You take my life away) You take my life away,
(You take my life away) You take my life away,
(You take me life away) Life away,
(Life away, life away) Life away, life away.

And then you look into my eyes,
Untill I saw the nights surprise,
And you saw the nights surprise.

And you know that the night,
Can bring you back to life,

And you know that the night,
Can bring you back to life,

And there's a chance that it might,
If it won't take away your life,
Then you know that the night can bring back.
It brings you back to life.

Brings you back to life. (brings you back to life)
Ooooh.
