I couldn't stand up looking up at the faded party
I couldn't stand up looking up at a faded party
It was a mistake pageant

This is a mistake pageant
But it's unsuitable to laugh like the others
It was a mistake from the start
Couldn't stand up looking up, I'm at a faded party

I couldn't stand up looking at, at a famous party

It was a mistake pageant
It was a mistake from the start

And I don't understand the way that you're living
This is a mistake pageant
Because you've had bad luck (Disorder)
And I know what it feels like to have bad luck
You can't open your eyes

You can't open your eyes

It's vain or is it just fame?
It was a mistake from the start
This is a mistake pageant
It was a mistake pageant

Because you've had bad luck (Disorder)
And I don't understand this way that you're living
And I know what it feels like to have bad luck
I hope that this won't bring you down
These people are obscured by frowns

This won't bring you down
These people, frown

And I know what it feels like to have bad luck
Cause you've had bad luck (Disorder)
