Someone more important has come along
And been discovered for Something more important
You'll be the first to know that it was Something that you didn't do
But you wanted to, just to be considered for Something that you could never do
But you want to try to

But one thing that you should know
It doesn't take much to celebrate much
One thing that you should know
It's always best to treat me with...

Care
And we always have to impress your
Care
And we always have to impress

Something more traditional
Has come along in place of all
The ideas that I have
But maybe it's the way to still be special
Some things that you never do
You don't have to try to
And even if it's one thing that you could never do
You don't have to try to

But one thing that you should know
It doesn't take much to celebrate much
One thing that you should know
It's always best to treat me with...

Care
And we always have to impress your
Care
And we always have to impress your
Care
And we always have to impress your
Care
And we always have to impress

Why do we always have to impress?
We always have to impress
We always have to impress
We always have to impress
