Calling Places,collecting careless
Sentences I write them down so I ignore them
You should too,should ignore every word
Is calling what you can surrender
The only way to really learn that the alphabet
Made up the words you could never esist to quote

Pre-chorus:

And if all this wisdom is true
Then I doubt it could really have come from you

Chorus:

Then I am what I am not,I am what I am not
But It must something more like,If I am just a thought
,I'll know

Faster than the destination of knowing where you really are
It's where you've always been
Or is it where ytu began?
And happinees did it happen soones than the doubt
It costs to learn from the mistakes
That I taught you

Pre-chorus

Chorus
