Take the hand that's holding up your head
With the hand that's holding your heart
It's more than I am
More than I am

Hold your hand above your head
Wiser hands are heard above your heart
It's more than I am
To be more than I am

And you and I are both away
Oh, you and I we are walls away
And we will never say nothing but
What we say
And we will never say nothing but
What we say

Didn't you know that this world
Is not meant to be dreamt in
But what hurts me most
Is all the time that we've wasted
I've wasted all the dreams in my head
I'll have to move
Out of this country instead
I'll have to move
I'll have to move
I'll have to move
Out of this country instead

You and I are both away
Oh, you and I we are walls away
And we will never say nothing but
What we say
And we will never say nothing but
What we say
And we say
