You follow it back
You follow it all back
And then you take my dreams of nothing
You regard them all with nothing

And through the unknown we go back
You find it in you and you take it back
Until you take my dreams of nothing

We're making it together
So it feels like we belong
A place we feel together
So it feels like we're all gone

When we're gone for, forever
Are we gone for, forever?
Are we gone for, forever?

You follow it back
You follow it all back
And then you take my dreams of nothing
You regard them all with nothing

Between the road and the waters edge
An acolyte of disorder
Then you're burning my dreams of nothing

You're making it together
So it feels like we belong
We reunite together
So it feels like we're all gone

'Cause we're gone for, forever
Then we're gone for, forever
I'm gone for forever

When you feel like you don't know you gotta
When you feel like you don't know you gotta
When you feel like you don't know you gotta

Until you're making it together
So it feels like we're all gone

You're making it together
So it feels like we're all gone

You're making it together
So it feels like we're all gone
You're making it together

We'll be gone for, forever
We'll be gone for, forever
We'll be gone for, forever
We'll be gone for, forever
