I created myself to be on my own
But I didn't expect to be alone
Did you create yourself to be on your own?
These are the reasons things should be unknown

The days won't let you know
And days won't let you know

That all I never wanted was to be there with you
All I ever wanted to know anywhere with you

No one creates themselves unless they try to Shut up the caution that made them lie to
All this talk but no one will tell me
Where and when I need to go

The days won't let you know
The says won't let you know

That all I never wanted was to be there with you
All I ever wanted to know anywhere with you

There is no reason, there is no reason
There is no reason for that now
There is no reason, there is no reason
There is no reason for that

All I never wanted was to be there with you
All I ever wanted to know anywhere with you
It's with you so

All I never wanted was to be there with you
All I ever wanted to know anywhere
Ever wanted to know anywhere with you
