

Idlewild

"Little Discourag"

Visit "Little Discourag" on MotoLyrics.com

I found a mountain on my own (I'm encouraged)
Trust history to say it's unknown (It's discouraging)
There's a seventeen contest in my own home
(Discourage)
Sick of seventeen contests in my own home
(Discourage)
Don't cross the road, you're under a spell
A broken violin (Discourage)
Don't cross the road, you're under a spell
Of broken violins

But all I need is a little discouragement
All I need is a little discouragement
All I need is a little discouragement
All I need is a little discouragement
All I need is a little discouragement

I ran away from my own telephone (Discourage)
It rings to tell you what the future holds in store, so.....
There's a lack of confidence at home (Discourage)
When a seventeen contest fills your own home
(Discourage)
Put your trust in courage, no one can tell
The broken violin

All I need is a little discouragement
(The world knows what I need, but it's proving far too hard for me)

Visit Idlewild page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.