Can you hear the words I'm trying to find for the feelings that define you There's no point in trying to hide from the skeleton that surrounds you So we speak no louder than a whisper when we're running from winter So we speak no louder than a song when we're falling all day falling all day long

In whatever we say we show no emotion
we show no emotion
and when we kick back into the world of motion we show, we show no emotion

Can you see ourselves and trying to hide the reasons that define you If there's a point in trying to find if there's an emptiness inside you So we speak no louder than a whisper means we're running from winter

So we speak no louder than a song means we're falling all day falling all day long

In whatever we say we show no emotion
and when we kick back into the world of motion
we show, we show no emotion Whatever we say we show no emotion
we show no emotion
and when we kick back into the world of motion

In whatever we say we show no emotion
and when we kick back into the world of motion
we show, we show no emotion
