When it feels like

When it feels like

Culture gets too much for me

I go, I go outside

Singing songs to alabis

Singing songs to alabis

Singing songs to alabis

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

A song is a beautiful lie

I know that one day when you die

Maybe you will buy

Maybe you will buy

And now I sit alone and sigh

A song is beautiful lie
