It's about to change
I'll never look at you the same again
Just one of those days
Where everyone's just trying to be your friend
Where do I fit into your future plans
There ain't a space for me
Oh there ain't a space for me

More more more, you will be squeeling and they will be screaming for
More more more, you'll be lucky if you make it before they can take it
More more more, your feet can't run faster, to boycott
disaster
More more more, the saga continues, you got to look within your heart

And right now
I wanna take your hand and dance with you
And right now
It's not in my heart but I want you to Take a photo for the memories

Take the time to write a symphony
Be true to who you want to be
And sail across the oceans
You're a keen machine
Follow common patterns of your teenage dreams
The desire for some company
Drives you through the motions

And right now
I wanna take your hand and dance with you
And right now
It's not in my heart but I want you to Close your eyes but you can't get to sleep

Try to channel, thoughts into your dreams
Think of times you've had and what they mean Don't regret the things that you've done
Don't be a sheep cos you can find your own way
Keep a focus or you'll tend to stray

Fight the feelings don't make a mistake
Find your own solution

And right now
I wanna take your hand and dance with you
And right now
It's not in my heart but I want you to

screaming for
More more more, you'll be lucky if you make it before
they can take it
More more more, your feet can't run faster, to boycott
disaster
More more more, the saga continues, you got to look
within your heart
