music and lyrics by P.Ahonen & J.Kyro

Suspicion grows inside my head the life I have lived makes me see red

It's time to make the tables turn all the bridges will burn

[Chorus]

All the secrets unfold all the stories will be told it's the Fall of Thy Kingdom

Repeating phrases from the book your future is already doomed

it's the Fall of Thy Kingdom

Abandoned by your faithful few breaking the spell taking our lives from you

Your walls will come crumbling down you have lost the jeweled crown

[Chorus]

Finally kings and queens were defeated by the servants silence falls on empty halls the reign of terror has gone
