music by P.Ahonen, lyrics by P.Ahonen & J.Kyro

I'm disappointed in you we passed the turning point there's nothing to be done we're darkness and light

I'm disappearing into you your mind is like a maze you can't see my point of view we're drowning in lies

[Pre-chorus]

Show me, the darkness of your heart grown cold
open your eyes and see...
[Chorus]

Higher, emotions will rise Desire, still burns behind the lies

Unspoken words can't be heard if you don't keep an open mind distant skies will turn to red the puzzle unsolved...

Is this battle all in vain the pain and the suffering the question still remains is there light in the dark

[Pre-chorus]

[Chorus]
