"Home" by Iggy Pop
from the Album "Brick by Brick"
(c) 1990
I work so hard, man, so don't trip me up shakin' a leg like that tail of the pup i'm payin' dues till i register heat sure hope i don't end up on the street
home, boy
home, boy
everybody needs a home
home, boy
home, boy
everybody needs a home
so many people rise and fall who's lookin; aget you at all?

stangers in paradise down at the mall
home, boy
home, boy
everybody needs a home
home, boy
home, boy
everybody needs a home
home
home
everybody really needs a home home home
the life we live is tricky tricky i love my home, and my family who's gonna love you when you montain gets steep
we're gonna make it -in a jeep
