"Far Away"

Well we've been running trying to get away
from the sigh of times when you've grown up on silent shores there's so many people that you ignore grasping outwards
trying to reach our goals
we're so far away
grasping in vein
hoping for a change
we're so far away
well we've been searching for some sort of truth to make sense of all the lies no we're not that naive because we've made
we've made our own objections
grasping outwards
trying to grab out goals
we're so far away

grasping in vein
we're so far away
we know
we are important
we know
we're not just kids
we know
we're far away from home
we know
we're out of time
we're so far away
we're so far away
