Branches break
From the family tree
The weight of heartache
Disintegrating families
Look what we've created
Illegitimate crack babies
Grandma raises the drunkard's children
Kiss at all cost
But an absence of true love
With a license to breed
We have taken advantage of
Got fifteen kids
Can't feed my family
No birth control
Condoms are not for me
The future of
Convicts criminals
Technology hasn't taken us that far
Open your eyes
And see that times have changed
We can't keep using the same rates
What's the point
Today
To overpopulate
Birth control abstinence
Most problems are self made
Back in the days we could fill all our needs
Back in the days we suffer from our greed
You and i violently go extinct
Back in the days
Open your eyes
And see that times have changed
We can't keep using at the same rates
But who are we or what's to blame
But ourselves
What's the point
Today
To overpopulate
Birth control abstinence
Most problems are self made
Back in the days we could fill all our needs
Back in the days we suffer from our greed

You and i violently go extinct
Back in the days
Past our means
Past our means
Past our means
