what happened here?
where did the bottom go?
when did you rush to crush the envelope?
suppose i should have known all along

the bullet - that came from the gun pierced right through the target
hit more than one
(should have known)

desperation - nothin look the same checking for a heartbeat chewing on the pain
right from the start

what a waste of life and look what you've done to everyone after - all's been said and done there's nothing much left to look at] except a coffin

suppose i should have known
i was wrong

(should have known)
