No stone remains unturned
A mystery that now compels me
The shelter where you once rest
A shadow that now surrounds me

I feel that it's so strange
Is it me that I now follow
Your mind is so deranged
In hurt I now find sorrow

You are my apparition
And help make my decisions
Vanished without a trace
Return to fight the chase (2)

The candle that burns inside
Will set the world on fire
I'll head my own desire
And hope that it takes me higher

I feel that it's so strange
Is it me that I now follow
Your mind is so deranged
In hurt I now find sorrow

You are my apparition
And help make my decisions
Vanished without a trace
Return to fight the chase (2)
