Whenever I'm left out
I'm thrown into dismay
The things I've gone without
Unfair it seems this way

At times I never start
I drift and lose my way
Forever in the dark
And now there I must stay

Frail heart - A noose hangs over me
Frail heart - I crawl on Odin's tree
In searching for my own embrace
Sometimes my heart takes second place

It never crossed my mind
But now is clear as day
On eagles wings on path
I'm closer every day

A glimpse of hope has past
A cloud of dust has rained
Again I'm in the dark
And now there I must stay

Frail heart - A noose hangs over me
Frail heart - I crawl on Odin's tree
In searching for my own embrace
Sometimes my heart takes second place
