"Hologram"

We were inside
Wolfing down breakfast to make the grade
Oh death arrived
Holding the wheel of an aeroplane
Hey don't look up
Like paper and stones they are falling now
Godzilla heart
Is holding all the world to ransom

Building fall down
Don't let me out of my hologram
Building fall down
Does anyone here know a Superman?

Split second chance
All of the airlocks are closing fast
This is no way to die
Pinned to the page like a butterfly
With your granite heart
You went and broke all the human rules
So fuck you and all
You believe to be true

Building fall down....

Where are we now?
And how did we get here?
