sleepyhead in * you fell..... and it would be cool to say we're falling apart at the scenes
keep it in your heart as long as you want... and down to your soul my heart is a graveyard without you you said you'd love me to death you said we all disappear in the end you said by christmas i'll be doing fine but it seems i'm not yet

the dream your skin all over in you scream stars in the flesh don't mean that ..... keep me a wake

not yet

you said by christmas i'll be doing fine it seems i'm not yet and when you look in his eyes tell me you wish those eyes were mine and when you in lay in his arms tell me you wish those arms were mine and when they come for me promise me this you'll be standing next to me and when they bury me promise me this they'll bury you next to me
