It doesn't matter anymore
It doesn't matter anymore
I'm not the person I used to be
I'm not the man I thought I once was

I don't know quite where I am
Where I am where I am
I'm sitting here in a dark corner
Looking at nothing but always something
Always something

My eyes are fixed on a vision
Of you, of you
My eyes are fixed on a vision
Of you, of you

Of you
Of you

Moment In Time

Words by Michael Carrodus
