Something beyond the shadows
Hiding beyond the light
Enter the darkened forces
No one to hold you tight
Try to control such emotion
I must control these thoughts
Look beyond the day now
Or suffer in silence

I hear you call

I didn't come here
To cause you pain
In the heat of the madness
I am not to blame
I didn't come here
To cause you pain
In the heat of the night
Things are not the same

Within me there is a madness
Something controlling me
There is an evil within us
Another part you can not see
What have I done to deserve this
I did not cause your pain
A fate beyond my control now
I am not the same
