Reflection in someone's eye
Is all I see
I sometimes hate myself
I sometimes hate myself
I look into the future
Darkness lies ahead
A shadow of a man that once was
A shadow of a man that once was

Condemnation

To justify existence
A task I have tried
To believe in god
To believe in you
How can you expect me to believe in
Something that can't be true
How can you expect me to believe in
Something that can't be true

Condemnation

This hell you put me through
What am I supposed to do
The light before me
I am blinded
The light before me
Let me see
A shadow of a man that once was
A shadow of a man that once was

The Shadow Of The Angel
