"Lost Within Time"

Visit "Lost Within Time" on MotoLyrics.com

They are lost within time
The blind leading the blind
Wandering in the land of illusion
Eating and building dreams

I'm not summoning those
Who will not forsake him
Turning my back and laughing
Pathetic fools without hope

I stood in the shadows
And devoured all that i saw
The screams were fading
Silence roared like thunder

This empty flow drowned
All the dreams of the past
Servants beneath my throne
Cried out for a new dawn
