Once an inspiration so high above. Worthy admiration, picture perfect in my mind. And you were, all the reason I do now what I do. And you were everything to me. You can take your friends, and you can take your face, and you can leave me alone, 'cause you're a fake, and you always were, and I don't need you. So here we are now, me above and you below. Can't you see what you meant to me? And now you amount to everything I never want to be. Can't you see that you mean nothing to, to me? You can take your friends, and you can take your face, and you can leave me alone, 'cause you're a fake, and you always were, and I don't need you. Fallen hero, look at you now. Fallen hero, look at you.....now. (fallen hero) You can take your friends, and you can take your face, and you can leave me alone, (fallen hero) 'cause you're a fake, and you always were, and I don't need you. Fallen hero look at you now. Look at you now.
