Ill Bill
"Babylon"

We've unraveled the bible code, rifle explode
Demand attention like a knife at your throat
Then controlling the price of your soul, titans of stone
Psychic totalitarian, vilest elements
And mind control experimentation is various Narcotics made to inflict pain and madness, assassins
With muliple personalities asking for full access
A backstage pass to cover up spectacular assassinations
And arms deals across the axis, another witch hunt
Religious radicals with big guns, big plans
Invisible cameras built in Japan
CIA behavior controlled scientists in the cults,
And formed an alliance of cult leaders, also a client
Tech savvy hijacker associates board planes
To practice, anxiously awaiting their global audience Enter the core of our fears with ease, the ultimate reality series
Flooded with callous angles and theories, now hear me.

This operation doesn't exist, the revolution will be classified
Live broadcast from the abyss
Our cities are crack spots and cardboard condiminiums Vicious as track marks, crossed minds, loss and delirium
The towers dropped, blind fools, confusion, who knew?
Now the world watch Saddam's execution on YouTube
Propaganda machines wage media jihad
A teen walk into a crowded movie theater with bombs
Reading the Koran silently, obedient to God Known by many different names, Hachem, Jesus and Allah
Exploded poor shadow government protocols go to war
Amongst 10,000 voices on the road to Babylon
Patriot Act, sanctioned exorcism
Iranian and North Korea built weapons systems
Budgets increase the payroll, hundreds of creeps
Now guerilla beasts bomb London under the streets
The engineer with some popular peer

His value prepared, to have the nuclear weapons to shower the air
A thin line between power and fear, a martyr, the tears
Goodbye father now my final hour is here, help me.

His value prepared, to have the nuclear weapons to shower the air
A thin line between power and fear, a martyr, the tears
Goodbye father now my final hour is here, help me.
