Why?

Is everything starting to crumble?

And all of my wrong was forgiven.

I ask you why?

I ask you who?

Gave you the will to recover.

When all of our love has been missing.

I ask you why?

I ask you who?

Now turn to me and explicame ya.

(Explain to me now)

Just speak to me te lo pido yo.

(I ask you)

If you live for me pues protejeme ya.

(Then protect me now)

Now tell me

Did you ever ask the sky?

Not to cry no more.

To fly no more.

Did you ever ask the stars?

Not to shine no more.

To fly no more.

Did you ever think that we would still remain together
for so long?

Is it what we wanted all along?

Is it what we wanted for so long?

How come we

Have always held on to each other?

Your here your gone and your leaving.

I ask you why?

And I tried but I

Have never have thought that our passion.

Would ever be hard to be stricken.

Nunca pense.

(I never thought)

I ask you who?

Now turn to me and explicame ya.

(Explain to me now)

Just speak to me te lo pido yo.
(I ask you)
If you live for me pues protejeme ya.
(Then protect me now)
Now tell me
Did you ever ask the sky?
Not to cry no more.
To fly no more.
Did you ever ask the stars?
Not to shine no more.
To fly no more.
Did you ever think that we would still remain together
for so long?
Is it what we wanted all along?
Is it what we wanted for so long?

Now tell me
Did you ever ask the sky?
Not to cry no more.
To fly no more.
Did you ever ask the stars?
Not to shine no more.
To fly no more.
Did you ever think that we would still remain together
for so long?
Is it what we wanted all along?
Is it what we wanted for so long?
