Your mind is awakening, your soul is repenting
Stop pissing away all the hours and days
Take one last look at me, this is what you will be
If you keep on this way we will all turn to fire!

All these pictures turn our eyes into stares
Their reaction proves that they just don't care
I will take one last look into your face
Fall to my knees, fold in disgrace

Rip out your eyes, rip out your eyes
The power within you will guide you and I
Rip out your eyes, rip out your eyes
They don't lie

Your mind is awakening, your soul is repenting

Stop pissing away all the hours and days
Take one last look at me, this is what you will be
If you keep on this way we will all turn to fire!

All our actions paint a picture surreal
There's no way to erase the hate that I feel
I will take one last look into your face
Before we all crumble and fall

Rip out your eyes, rip out your eyes
The power within you will guide you and I
Rip out your eyes, rip out your eyes
They don't lie

Decide, inside, decide, inside
