This time I suggest, You and I devise a plan,
Just a means to escape all the pain and sufferin'.
Got so much here on my plate and you sayin we should wait,
And the more that I agree the more I'm dyin' inside.
You werent thinkin' bout me when your on a holiday,
You werent thinkin' bout me when you callin' out his name,
And I've been around the world, and I've seen so many girls,
And I'm watchin' all their moves, but they move nothing
like you,

Chorus:
This time she said its over.

She said next time forever.
I cant explain, I'll take the blame,
I brought this all on myself.

Visions that I've seen, always haunt me in my dreams,
They say that you two just friends,
Oh, but thats not the way it seems.
And its not like I'm tryin' to be up all night,
Just trying to come to terms with all the love I've lost.

Chorus x2

Let's go!
Its just a path that tests the life we're takin baby.
If I can make it through our changes, ohhh
