Oh oh oh.... and I can't come screamin.. I need to know.. need a reason for dreamin I've been livin in life and can't be trusted, I'm tryna figure out, figure out what it's all about, oh what it's all supposed to be, Oh! Listen to the wind I'm tryna read the waves.. always. And nothin..... and nothing.. counts Don't say these words dont count for anything, I guess, It's all a waste....
Sometimes I can feel it like a friend that spreading secrets over me, passin all our energy, but I got this feelin in side, that tells me theres no where to go hide.. so be... so be..... it! Don't say these words don't count for anything, I guess, It's all a waste, Life is over rated and the stories missin pages I guess.. I can't be saved..
It's just this feelin I can't be saved, no time for dreamin I can't be saved, If I can see it I can't be saved, Don't say these words dont count for anything.. I guess it's all a waste..... SHAAAAAAAAAAAAA Life is over rated and the stories missin pages I guess I can't be saved I can't be saved... I cant be saved!!!!
