"Near the gate"

"You are my life", she said as I looked
"And there ain't no way in which I celebrate That I live, only you the reason for me"

Fuck that you smelly slut cause, there ain't no way

I'm going down that road with you bitch I'm much better looking than that

A very thin line between lovers and haters
I scream, as I drag you nearer to the gates A line defined by mr. Norman Bates Your body ripped by my knife, we're at the gates

Take a look around you
Great colors I smell Amazing

"Go get a life", I say to her who's life is based on pleasing me, Yeah I know it may be difficult actually doing it yourself
