Yes we're gonna blow up
This is where we show them what we're made of
All my people on another way to another world
Hey-yeah!
I'm gonna load up all these f*cking bullets
And I'll tear up all these haters
We're gonna see what you're really made of Hey-yeah!

Extra, extra! we are surrounded
Don't run, fight where you're standing
Kick off and I know this game
Here we go all for one day
If the sound's too loud
Light shines too brightly
We've made it to the stage

Rock in your direction, you didn't see me coming
Because if you did, I'd have seen you running
What'd you say? Sorry I couldn't hear
You forgot? Is that because I'm so near?
Like poison air, 'cause it's time to end
All these lies, so troubling

Extra, extra! we are surrounded
Don't run, fight where you're standing
Kick off and I know this game
Here we go all for one day
If the sound's too loud
Light shines too brightly
We've made it to the stage

So what, you don't love me
I'll never quit
Cause I'm on a journey
You're on a trip
I know you're so many
We're just a few
Still I know we're ready
Ready for you

Extra, extra! we are surrounded
Don't run, fight where you're standing
Kick off and I know this game
Here we go all for one day
If the sound's too loud
Light shines too brightly
We've made it to the stage

Extra, extra! we are surrounded
Extra, extra! we are surrounded
Kick off and I know this game
Here we go all for one day
Light shines too brightly
