First step to the edge disaster
Feeling supersonic things are getting faster
Can't hold on to anything worthwhile
It won't take that long so
Pow pow wait for your quiet place tripping balls seen my face
I am drowning in this sea of dreams
Life ain't what it seems

Pressure pressure
Ya you know I'm running to a place that's always sunny
And all the things that I don't have I will find Ya I live so wrong but it feels so right

Milkshakes and razorblades
Welcome everybody to the masquerade
Ain't no better when we're in its place
And there ain't no love I'm sure
The situation is getting kinda out of control

Dropping meek and different
Feelings getting old so much time's been spent
Too many lives been sold
And we're breaking ourselves and everyone asks what we living for Hope the reasons that you're doing this are same as before

Milkshakes and razorblades
Welcome everybody to the masquerade
Ain't no better when were in its place
And there ain't no love I'm sure
The situation is getting kinda out of control

[Kardinal Offishall]

Milkshakes and razorblades
It's like living through hell trying to find some shade
It's like talking with the devil over lemonade
Like holding the peace sign here in earth's pray Look at what I'm turning to I'm the first to cast judgment and say it was you

Trying the Sodom the mends trying to get to you
We are a force as one but we still solute
Eh, my friends and I stick to the end
We all going postal on what the messenger said
I live like I might take my life to the end
I was wrong but I try to make it right with my plan EH
S'all good and s'all bad
Either way I guess I'd take what I had Signs on my time check the signs on the clock
But the prince of the real from the headlocks?

Milkshakes and razorblades
Welcome everybody to the masquerade
Ain't no better when were in its place
And there ain't no love I'm sure

Oh uh hey yea ah ah oh oh hey yea ah ah uh uh no no
Hey yeah hey yeah whoa yeah whoa yeah oh yeah yeah yeah yeah

Milkshakes and razorblades
Welcome everybody to the masquerade
Ain't no better when were in its place
And there ain't no love I'm sure

I'm sure [repeat to fade]

Milkshakes and razorblades
Welcome everybody to the masquerade
Milkshakes and razorblades
Welcome everybody to the masquerade
