Hey, everybody, we're going to, Neil's Party,
Got you a drink in the hand one,
One-A's the place to have some fun,
Got you a spliff in the other hand,
Weed's at the top of the rigaband,
Rockin' until the mornin' light,
One-A's the place to feel all right,
I say,

All I want's for all the world to go away,
'Cause lately, things have been crazy,
Who's gonna save me, from myself?

All I know, there's no place like it,
And if you like it,
Then I might suggest you come around again,
And I'm so stoned,
That all the music that surrounds us,
will remind me of the mess that we came from

Then we go and throw it down for the world in amazement,
And what you think we're doing all this time in the basement,
Mixin' the reggae, the rock, and the Ska, Punk, and Dub,
Know that all I want is what I got,
Nothin' else I require,
Nothin' else here that I need,
Where there's smoke don't mean there's fire,
'Cause the smoke here smells like weed And I say,

All I want's for all the world to go away,
As lately, things have been crazy,
Who's gonna save me, from myself?

All I know, there's no place like it,
And if you like it,
Then I might suggest you come around again,
And I'm so stoned,
That all the music that surrounds us,

will remind me of the mess that we came from

The show, we don't stop,
Cause there's nothin' gonna start up on it's own,
Still believin' there there's freedom,
Comin' up out my stereo,
And it's hard to define, but it feels kind of like,
I've lost all sense of time and I can't go home tonight

All I know, there's no place like it, (All I Know)
And if you like it,
Then I might suggest you come around again,
And I'm so stoned, (I'm so stoned)
The music that surrounds us,
will remind me of the mess that we came from,
So messed up
