Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey!

I wake up to the morning sun.
Freedom! A new realization.
All panic has washed away.
It's a new day! It's a new day!
This living got me on the run.
Screamin', at anyone who'll listen.
I wake up to the morning sun.
And it's new, comin' in all directions.

Tomorrow you'll be sorry.
Tomorrow it's too late!
Heeey! Heeey!
Don't take it for granted.
Take it for granted.
I'm alive, never gonna die.
Everythin' I want is set in my sight.
I don't take it for granted.
Take it for granted.

From the start, I gave you all my heart.
You set me up, you're everything I'll never want.
Those days will never be erased.
Thanks for the memories.
That's all that remains now.
So long, goodnight.
'Cause our pieces don't fit right.
And the great unknown is comin' into focus.
Thanks for the memories.
That's all that remains now.

Tomorrow you'll be sorry.
Tomorrow it's too late!
Heeey! Heeey!
Don't take it for granted.
Take it for granted.
I'm alive, never gonna die.
Everythin' I want is set in my sight.
I don't take it for granted.
Take it for granted.

Dare to try. Try to dare.
Great things cannot come without great attempts.
And if you fail, fail while trying.
So at least your ghost... will never lie.
And those cold, pitied souls will know neither victory...
nor defeat.

Don't take it for granted.
Take it for granted.
I'm alive, never gonna die.
Everythin' I want is set in my sight.
I don't take it for granted.
Take it for granted.
I'm alive, never gonna die.
Everythin' I want is set in my sight.
Don't take it for granted.
Take it for granted!
